

From Darkness to Light Through Education

This artwork represents education as a journey from darkness to light.

The left side shows darkness, symbolizing lack of knowledge.

Children enter the school building from the dark side and exit toward the light, representing learning and hope for the future.

The school acts as the bridge between ignorance and knowledge